On 5/10/12 they were told that the initial bond application had not been accepted and that a new application has to be submitted to a different bonding company. Thereafter Valley Ag provided a second application. On 6/4/12 they received the second application from Mr. Hine and they are waiting to hear back on its approval. If Valley Ag is unable to obtain the bond, then they will come back to court to obtain approval for an alternate structure to provide protection to the estate.
